Overview

Keeva Coe has extensive experience in commercial real estate and business law. She represents real estate owners, developers, buyers, sellers, investors, landlords and tenants in planning, negotiating, documenting and closing a wide range of commercial real estate and business transactions. Her practice focuses on real property development, large complex purchase and sale transactions, 1031 tax-deferred exchanges, and representing developers in the creation of mixed-use, condominium, and master-planned communities. Keeva has considerable experience representing clients in easements, pipelines, subdivisions, CC&Rs, REAs, various communications facilities transactions, and office, commercial, industrial, telecommunications and agricultural leases.

Keeva represents clients in purchases, sales and leases of environmentally contaminated properties. She provides representation on development and operation of business parks and residential subdivisions. She also advises clients in the formation, operation and dissolution of business entities.

Keeva is an AV® Peer Review Rated lawyer, the highest rating given by Martindale-Hubbell for legal ability and ethical standards.
