

Intellectual Property Litigation

Our intellectual property team provides representation to plaintiffs and defendants in disputes over the ownership, licensing, and use of intellectual property and proprietary information. Our attorneys have handled matters involving claims of copyright, trademark, and trade dress infringement, theft of trade secrets, and unfair competition. The Intellectual Property Team has experience handling injunctive actions in both state and federal court and a full range of services relating to representation in litigation and alternative dispute resolution, business and licensing transactions, and counseling. We combine our litigation and transactional experience with knowledge and expertise on intellectual property issues to ensure that our clients obtain the best practical result.
